

Greetings! I came across your job posting on a job search app and was immediately interested in the opportunity.

I'm Padma Christie, and I'm passionate about teaching English. My journey in teaching started at Joy English School and continued with an English teaching project during university. These experiences helped me to start developing my teaching style and confirmed that education is something I truly love.

I've received a B2 score on the Linguaskill English test which is equivalent to 860 - 944 score in TOEIC test and 6.5pts. In the IELTS English test.

I also hold two teaching certificates:

 TEFL \(Teaching English as a Foreign Language\)

 TESOL \(Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages\).

I'm fluent in English, Chinese, Cantonese, Hokkien, and Malay. This allows me to connect with students from all sorts of backgrounds. English has always been my favorite subject, and I've always done well in it since I was in elementary school.

One of the most rewarding parts of my teaching experience in Taiwan was seeing my students grow more confident in using English. It was incredible to watch them improve and take pride in their progress. I'm excited to use my language skills and teaching background to create a fun, supportive environment where students feel comfortable and motivated to succeed. I'm really looking forward to the chance to contribute to your team and work together to help students reach their language-learning goals.

I look forward to your response. If you require any further clarification, please don't hesitate to contact me. I would love to discuss this position in detail.

Thank you for your consideration.
